Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request for confirmation of your exemption from Federal Income Tax.

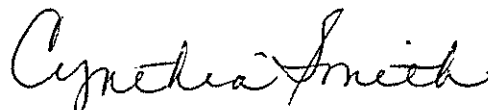

You were recognized as an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code by our letter of March, 1960. You were further determined not to be a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are an organization described in section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1).

Contributions to you are deductible as provided in section 170 of the Code.

The tax exempt status recognized by our letter referred to above is currently in effect and will remain in effect until terminated, modified, or revoked by the Internal Revenue Service. Any change in your purposes, character, or method of operation must be reported to us so we may consider the effect of the change on your exempt status. You must also report any changes in your name and address.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Exempt Organizations Coordinator

Certification

Based on evidence presented you are organized and operated exclusively for charitable & educational purposes, and are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

You are not required to file income tax returns unless you change the character of your organization, the purposes for which you were organized, or your method of operation. Any such changes should be reported to us immediately. However, you must file an annual information return, Form 990-A.

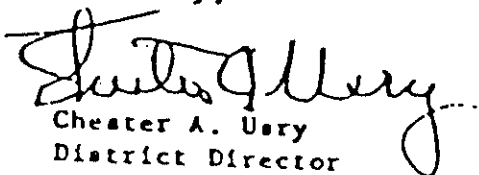

Contributions made to you are deductible by the donors in computing their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 170 of the 1954 Code.

Bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers to or for your use are deductible in computing the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by sections 2055 and 2106 of the 1954 Code. Gifts of property to you are deductible in computing net gifts for gift tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided in section 2522 of the 1954 Code.

You are not liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act unless you have filed a certificate of waiver of exemption under section 3121(k) of the 1954 Code. Section 3306(c) provides for your exemption from Federal unemployment tax.

Your exemption will be revoked if any substantial part of your activities consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or if you participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Sincerely,

Chester A. Usry
District Director
